SERVICES TO THE COURT AND THE COMMUNITY
A NOTE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

This is the second year of the pandemic, and while I am cautiously optimistic that we may have turned the corner and the end is in sight, unfortunately it continues to affect our work. I want to thank the hard working members of the Sheriff's Department, Office of Emergency Management and Health Department who supplied us with PPE throughout the year, ensured that all of our employees had access to the vaccine and staffed numerous exposure incidents so that we could take action to keep our staff and residents protected.

Of most important note, the staff at the juvenile detention facility, the JJC, displayed heroic fortitude in coming to work every day while it felt like the rest of the world got to stay home. Our upper managers and JJC staff are essential employees and proved their value and dedication throughout the pandemic. I cannot thank them enough for all of their hard work. The citizens of Kane County probably don't even recognize that we are county workers, and have sacrificed much throughout the year. And yet, we continue to come to work every day and take care of those who are charged to us.

Court Services is charged with providing services by the Probation and Probation Officers Act (statute 730 ILCS 110), the Juvenile Court Act (705 ILCS 405), and the Pretrial Services Act (725 ILCS 185). We work with both adults and juveniles under the jurisdiction of the court, everything from arrest through completion of sentences of supervision. The three main units within the Department include Probation and Pretrial, the Diagnostic Center (KCDC), and Juvenile Detention (JJC). KCDC provides psychological assessments and therapeutic services in support of the courts, Sheriff, Merit Commission, and probation services. The JJC houses juvenile offenders pending court or sentenced from seven regional counties.

The Department continues to implement proven Evidence-Based Practices (EBP) for community corrections with the goal of improving outcomes and reducing recidivism. Our department's focus is providing services to the court, and addressing risk factors with the defendants in order to improve their outcomes. We identify the "criminogenic factors" in their lives that drive them towards illegal behavior. Accurately assessing an offender's likelihood of re-offending allows the Department to better allocate resources to the people most at risk of reoffending and in need of interventions.

The Department uses several risk assessment tools dependent on the offense types, age of the defendant, mental health issues, etc. The Administrative Office of Illinois Courts (AOIC) has mandated the use of two risk assessment tools developed by the University of Cincinnati; the Adult Risk Assessment (ARA) and the Juvenile Risk Assessment (JRA).

The major projects and goals for the department in the coming year are listed in far more detail on the following pages.

I am also proud of the contributions of our department's management staff to the larger community of community corrections across the state. I have made implementing evidence based practices to reduce recidivism our driving core goal, and we have stepped up our presence in the state to spread this knowledge and encourage others. We are recognized leaders in our field. Listed below are some of the appointments and professional affiliations of our management staff.

PROGRAM PHILOSOPHY FOR THE DEPARTMENT

Departmental practices continue to be guided by the Eight Principles of Effective Interventions, which begin with assessing actuarial risk and need. Risk appraisals have been a part of offender supervision for over a century and have gained accuracy across several “generations” as more is learned about risk to reoffend. Now in the fourth generation or 4G, the most valid and reliable risk assessments:

- ✓ Measure unchangeable, static risk factors like age and criminal history
- ✓ Measure changeable, dynamic risk factors like attitudes, personality, and friends (also called crime-producing or criminogenic needs)
- ✓ Survey non crime-producing needs like transportation, lack of childcare, and low motivation (also called responsivity)
- ✓ Include a case management component that steers behavioral change towards the most pressing criminogenic needs

The Adult Risk Assessment-Community Supervision Tool (ARA-CST) and Juvenile Risk Assessment-Disposition Tool (JRA-DIS) encompass all four of the above criteria. Implemented in early 2019, these are the instruments used by Court Services to measure general risk to reoffend across adult and juvenile populations. Per departmental policy, the initial assessment is completed on new probationers within 70 days. In accordance with the risk principle, officers devote most of their efforts to individuals who score as moderate, high, and very high risk. Elevated risk to reoffend is met with more frequent contact both in the office and field. Officers routinely travel to the residences and schools of those on their caseload. Ancillary assessments are done when the primary risk tool does not fully capture risk to reoffend. Applicants for specialty courts and sex offenders are subject to ancillary tools.

In alignment with the needs principle, officers engage in case planning wherein the goals and objectives are aimed at addressing criminogenic needs as identified by the ARA-CST or JRA-DIS. Primary needs like antisocial attitudes, personality, and peers are prioritized and addressed via evidence-based interventions. Thinking reports/behavior chains, Carey Guides, and referrals to cognitive-behavioral programming are routine. Secondary needs like education/employment, substance abuse, family, and lack of prosocial activities are also the subject of case planning. On a daily basis, officers will link probationers with employment opportunities, schooling, and drug and alcohol treatment providers as well as assist them in developing specific plans to increase prosocial activities. Case plans are entered and updated in the University of Cincinnati Corrections Institute’s online case management system.

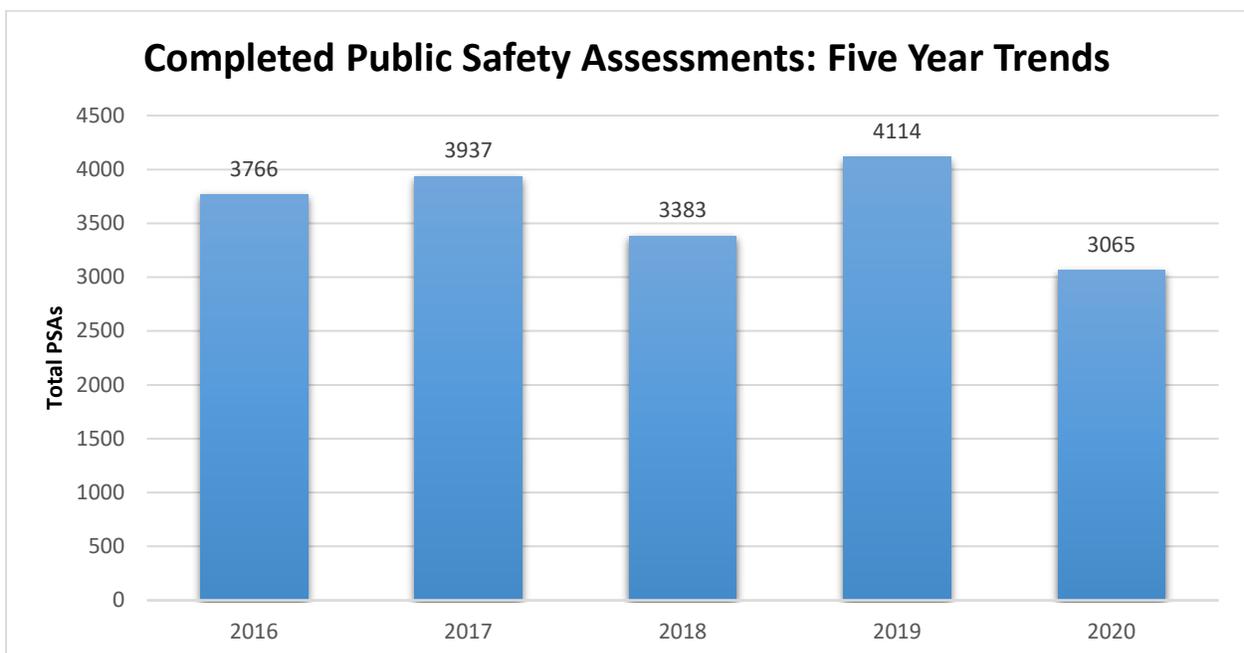

The responsivity principle directs officers to survey non crime-producing needs that may prevent the successful delivery of interventions geared towards crime-producing or criminogenic needs. As part of the risk assessment, officers will probe for responsivity issues such as lack of transportation and literacy. Such issues are taken into consideration so that probationers are not steered towards a goal that is otherwise not achievable. Empathy and individualized services are critical in risk reduction.

Pretrial Services - Kane County was selected by the Administrative Office of Illinois Courts (AOIC) to participate in a pilot of a new risk assessment tool, the Public Safety Assessment (PSA) from the Arnold Foundation. The PSA was implemented in January of 2016 and remains the sole pretrial instrument used by the department. The unit is staffed by eleven (11) full-time pretrial officers and two (2) supervisors.

The presiding judge in bond call is provided with a PSA on every pretrial arrestee who appears in court. The PSA measures the likelihood of new criminal activity (NCA) and failure to appear (FTA) in court if released pending trial. Each assessment recommends a level of pretrial supervision matched to the likelihood of NCA and FTA. Minimally, every defendant released on pretrial supervision receives an intake, court reminders, and regular checks for new arrests.

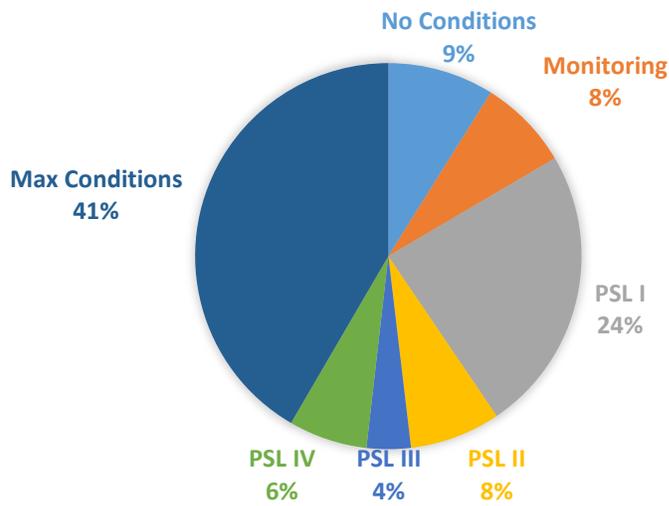

On 6/4/18, the Chief Judge signed General Order (G.O.) 18-06 to support the Bail Reform Act of 2017. Per G.O. 18-06, defendants detained on Category B offenses shall receive $30 in credit per day from their arrest date. These individuals are released from custody after the accumulated credit reaches 10% of their bond. Rehearings on Category B offenses are scheduled within seven days of the initial appearance if a recognizance release is not granted. Pretrial officers will interview detainees and submit an in-depth court report to accompany bond reduction motions. Thereafter, bond interview reports are completed according to risk level with lowest risk receiving highest priority.

In 2019, the Access to Justice Lab (A2J) of Harvard Law School began working with all three pilot sites (Kane, Cook, and McLean) on a PSA validation study. The department retrieved, cleaned, and submitted the data requested by A2J. The validation study was released in March of 2021.

*The labor dispute of 2018 lasted for 7 weeks and impacted our operations. The pandemic also affected our activity in 2020.

Pre-Sentence Investigations (PSI) Unit – This unit is comprised of two positions that are responsible for interviewing and submitting reports to the court used to make sentencing decisions. The presentence investigation includes the completion of a risk assessment that provides the court with risk and protective factors identified for a client. A full review of each client’s criminal, work, education, and family history is also included in the report.

Adult Probation – As required by statute, adult probation officers investigate, supervise, and report on all individuals placed on probation. As described above, officers do assessment-driven casework for the supervision component. Adult Risk Assessments (ARA) are completed on each probationer and updated regularly. For moderate-risk and above, officers continuously create case plans that steer clients to interventions that will address their criminogenic needs. Clients are seen in both office and community settings.

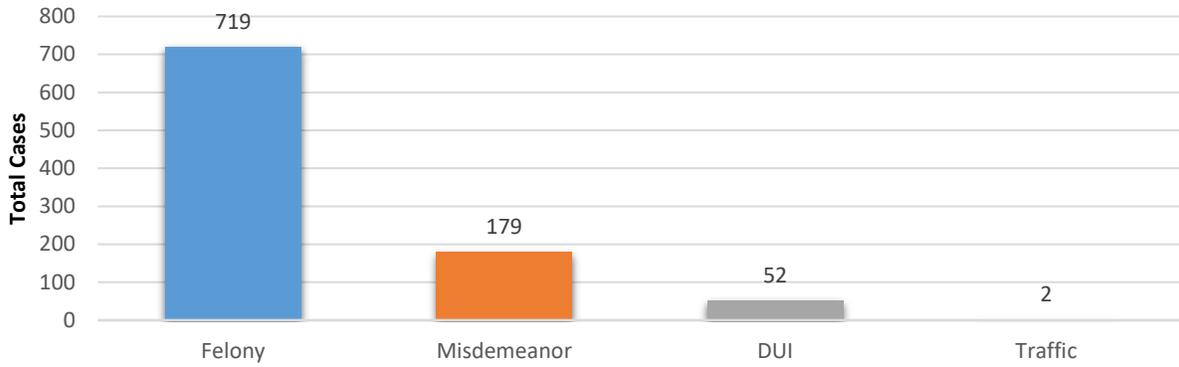

The use of graduated sanctions reduces the number of court appearances for technical violations of probation. Initial and less serious technical violations are typically met with a verbal sanction which may be a simple warning to stop an undesired behavior. For example, an officer may advise a client of the importance of consistent reporting after they have missed consecutive appointments. Repetitive and more serious technical violations trigger a written sanction which often imposes more intensive supervision strategies. For example, an officer increases urinalysis testing and reporting requirements after continual use of illicit substances. All written sanctions must first be approved by a supervisor. Once presented with a sanction agreement the client is advised that participation is optional. If the client opts to participate, the successful completion of a mutually agreed upon sanction negates the technical violation. Therefore, the noncompliance that prompted the sanction cannot be used in further proceedings as a basis of a formal violation of probation.

COMMUNITY RESTITUTION SERVICE (CRS) PROGRAM – Adult and juvenile clients work at not-for-profit organizations in lieu of paying fines or as required by statute. The CRS Coordinators are located in the three Court Services’ offices to increase accessibility. Their duties include recruiting worksites, training worksite coordinators, and scheduling appointments. All attempts are made to assign clients near their home or work to maximize the number of hours completed. Compliance is reported to the sentencing court via court reports. Court Services is experiencing a decrease in active sites due to liability issues and stringent restrictions by community agencies based on the charges they will accept at their agencies.

Conditional Discharge (CD) Program – Conditional Discharge is a sentencing option used by the court for certain clients that the court has determined do not require regular probation supervision but have been ordered to meet certain obligations as a condition of their sentence. The Conditional Discharge officer meets with these clients twice during their court ordered term in order to monitor and report to the court whether their ordered conditions have been fulfilled. Conditions may include completing CRS hours, attending Victim Impact Panels, going to therapy and paying fines and fees. At the end of a client’s term, a Termination Report is sent to the court reflecting the known status of all conditions ordered. At the end of 2020, approximately 575 CD cases were on warrant status which includes cases from previous years.

Administrative Caseload Unit (ACU) – This unit was created to help relieve the Adult Field Services Unit of administrative casework. The ACU is comprised of three officers at the Judicial Center whose primary responsibility is to collaborate with probation officers in other counties and states to monitor the compliance of clients residing outside of Kane County. This unit is also required to adhere to AOIC and interstate compact standards pertaining to transfers and supervision. Additionally, this unit is responsible for interviewing immediate transfer-out probation cases. ACU officers provide updates to the court, however they are limited in their ability to provide administrative sanctions as cases are supervised by another jurisdiction.

Sex Offender (SO) Program – Adult clients ordered to sex offender conditions are supervised by this program and are subject to additional monitoring and surveillance. All clients are individually staffed by the probation officer, community treatment provider, and the Director of the Kane County Diagnostic Center (KCDC) to determine the supervision level of the client based upon risk. The supervision level is based upon the ARA assessment, ancillary tools validated to determine risk for this population, and input from the client’s treatment provider concerning compliance. The ancillary tools utilized to assist in identifying risk in this population are the Stable 2007 and Static-99.

Using the containment team model, case coordination and increased communication between the supervising probation officers and the contracted treatment provider minimizes the ability of these offenders to hide violations of their probation terms and improves the team’s ability to identify behaviors indicating an increased risk to re-offend.

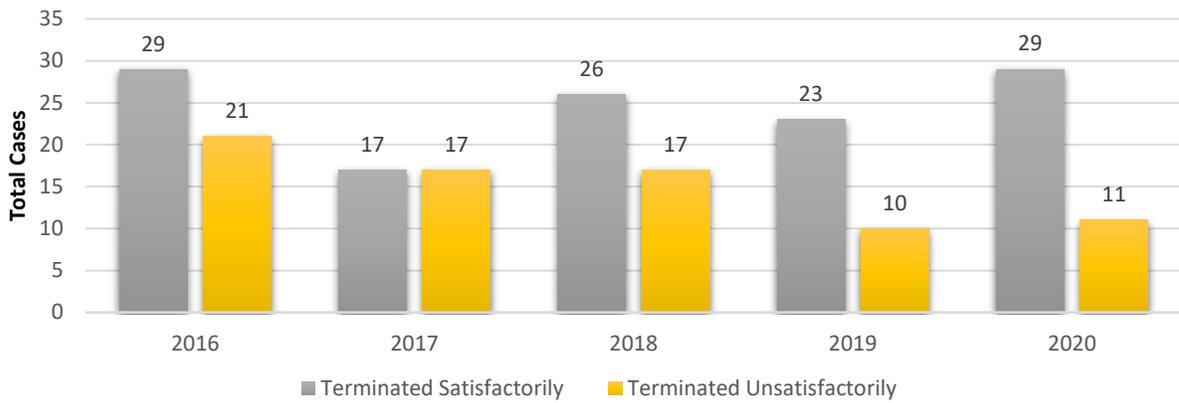

Kane County remains actively involved with the Illinois Sex Offender Management Board (SOMB), which began in 2001. Kane County continues to experience a growing number of offenders convicted of Failure to Register as a Sex Offender, including those who have served prison sentences for their original sex offense conviction, and are failing to continue to register correctly upon release from parole. We anticipate that as registration mandates continue to increase and change we will continue to see an increase in the number of clients supervised for this offense, which will likely mean we’ll need to modify how we approach supervision for these individuals.

Specialized Probation Services (SPS) Program – The Intensive Probation Supervision Program was no longer offered as a sentencing option to the Court beginning in September 2015 as the program approach was not evidence based. A new program for high risk/high need clients was developed based on the approach used in the Adult Redeploy (ARI) to decrease the number of clients sentenced to the Illinois Department of Corrections based on technical violations. After the end of the ARI grant, services continued under the Specialized Probation Services (SPS) unit. The focus of Specialized Probation Services is to offer wraparound services to clients who have a pattern of non-compliance with their probation terms with the goal for the client to remain in the community and complete their probation.

TREATMENT ALTERNATIVE COURT (TAC) – The Kane County Treatment Alternative Court began operation in February 2006, accepting the first participant into the program in April 2006. The mission of the Kane County Treatment Alternative Court (TAC) is to guarantee justice for criminal defendants with mental illness, co-occurring disorders, or developmental disabilities, to enhance public safety and promote the continuity of mental health care in the community. TAC is intended to be a systematic approach that brings together community based agencies to address defendant's needs and to provide comprehensive case management in an effort to reduce future criminal activity and incarceration in the Kane County Adult Justice Center. The defendants work closely with the court personnel and the treatment team to facilitate positive behavioral change and reduce criminal recidivism. Additional objectives of the program are to create effective interactions between mental health and criminal justice systems, improve public safety, and reduce the length of confinement of mentally ill defendants. To date, the TAC program has had 30 successful graduates. In 2020, the treatment team facilitated thirteen (13) residential treatment admissions.

VETERAN'S COURT- Veteran's Treatment Court (VTC) began implementation in Kane County in January of 2018 and accepted our first participant in July of 2018. It is the intent of the General Assembly and the Kane County Veterans Treatment Court to provide a specialized veteran and service members program with the necessary flexibility to meet the specialized problems faced by veteran and service member defendants. It is the mission of the Kane County Veteran Treatment Court, established here under the provisions of 730 ILCS 167/1 et. seq. to accomplish these goals through an immediate and highly structured judicial intervention process for treatment of eligible defendants that brings together substance abuse professionals, mental health professionals, VA professionals, local social programs and intensive judicial monitoring in accordance with the Illinois Supreme Court Problem-Solving Courts Standards. Three participants graduated from Veteran's Treatment Court in 2020; the first ones to successfully complete the program since its inception.

Juvenile Diversion – Per the Juvenile Court Act and General Order 14-06, the probation department is the screening mechanism for all juvenile arrests. In compliance with the Juvenile Court Act, minors should be diverted from court proceedings when it is in the minor’s and the community’s best interest. Minors are diverted from those proceedings based on their risk to re-offend, willingness to accept responsibility for their involvement, and the seriousness of the allegation. Diversion decisions also include input from the crime victims and the referring police jurisdiction. Diversion contracts may last up to one year and some include mental health or substance abuse treatment in the community.

Juvenile Placement

Per 705 ILCS 405/6-7(2) and the Juvenile Court Act, minors that are residents of Kane County can be placed into residential facilities per order of the Court in juvenile delinquency proceedings. Based on a review of the success of minors residentially placed, Kane County Court Services reserves recommendations for placement to minors that are experiencing mental health crises that are too severe for community treatment and for minors charged with serious sex offenses and treatment in the community is not sufficient to reduce re-offending. In 2020, Kane County residentially placed one minor.

Juvenile Probation – Under the Juvenile Court Act, Juvenile Probation Officers assess, investigate, and supervise the compliance of minors placed on juvenile probation or court supervision. Juvenile Probation Officers regularly appear in court and complete Social History Investigations and Juvenile Court Reports to provide information to assist the court in determining the best course of action to encourage positive outcomes for justice-involved minors. Fourteen (14) Juvenile Probation Officers are stationed across three sites. Officers engage in assessment-driven casework whereby an initial Juvenile Risk Assessment (JRA-DIS) is completed on each probationer and updated when appropriate. Juvenile Probation caseloads consist of mostly low and moderate-risk probationers with a small number of high-risk clients. Minors assessed as high-risk, high-need are assigned to the Specialized Probation Services (SPS) unit. For those assessed as moderate-risk and above, officers continuously create case plans that steer clients to interventions that will address their unique needs. Officers engage the juveniles and their families in office, school, and community settings.

Juvenile Sex Offender (JSO) Probation – Juveniles supervised by this unit are referred by the Child Advocacy Center (CAC) for diversion or are placed under the court’s jurisdiction for sex offender specific conditions. Based on the Juvenile Court Act, the CAC will screen eligible cases for diversion when it is in the community and the minor’s best interest. The risk assessment mandated by AOIC is not validated to predict risk for juvenile clients committing sex offenses; as a result, supervision is based on the completion of a JRA, the sex offender evaluation, and input from the minor’s treatment professional. If the JRA score is higher than the risk indicated by treatment, the JRA will dictate the level of supervision. Though not predictive of future reoffending, the PROFESOR checklist is also completed on juvenile sex offenders to enhance treatment planning. Supervision for this population is based on the containment team model which includes increased communication between the probation officer, the minor’s family, school personnel, and the contracted treatment provider to identify any concerning behaviors or risk to re-offend.

Juvenile Specialized Probation Services (SPS) Program – CAST was no longer offered as a sentencing option for juvenile clients as of October 1, 2015, per General Order 15-22 as the program approach was not evidence-based. A new program for high risk and high need juveniles was developed as part of the adult Specialized Probation Services (SPS) program. The focus of SPS is to offer wraparound services to clients and their families who have a pattern of non-compliance with their probation terms with the goal for the client to remain in the community and complete their probation.

DETENTION/JUVENILE JUSTICE CENTER (JJC) – The minors detained are accused of committing a crime and are awaiting trial in juvenile or criminal court and minors sentenced up to thirty (30) days as a court disposition. The Juvenile Justice Center opened on March 22, 1997. The eighty (80) bed facility has provided bed space for minors who reside in our circuit, as well as for seven other counties. Available bed space is provided to other counties on a per diem basis.

The Regional Office of Education administers the academic program. Their involvement in coordinating services with the JJC has been beneficial for the residents’ education. The educational program teaches all of the core curriculum areas: English, American History, General Science, Mathematics and Health.

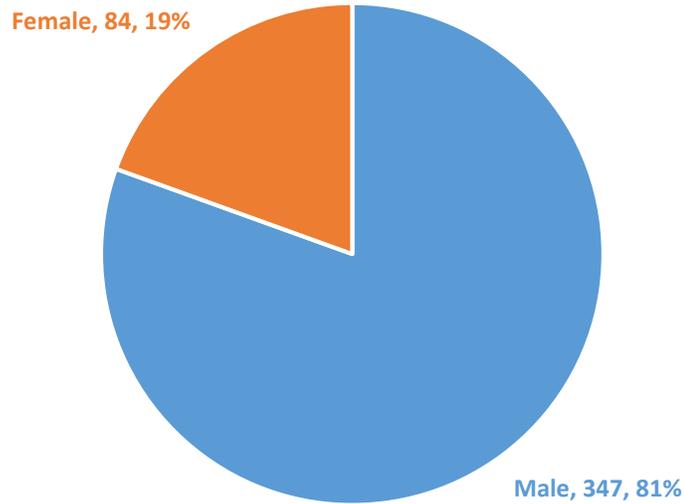

In 2020, the JJC met the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic head-on by reimagining our programming and using innovative strategies to keep our staff and residents safe and healthy as the world seemed to change every day. We initially modified our intake criteria to limit admissions to only the most serious charges and required each new resident to undergo fourteen (14) days of quarantine in a designated unit to limit opportunities for the virus to spread throughout our facility. Youth counselors and residents were organized into “cohorts” that stayed together for programming, school and recreation. The JJC was fortunate that we did not receive our first confirmed case of COVID until August, and measures were quickly put into place to ensure staff and residents were tested and the JJC was compliant with CDC guidelines. The Regional Office of Education assisted the JJC with completely reimagining the teaching process by introducing Big Blue Button (BBB) remote learning so the kids could continue receiving 300 minutes of instruction in a hybrid learning environment. Through Title 1 grant money, the ROE purchased new furniture for all of the living units, which has improved the overall look and feel of the detention environment. The residents were still able to work in the garden this year, although under a limited capacity. They were able to help paint a mural in the garden area, and the JJC added an apple orchard and several fruit bushes for the kids to enjoy. Although it was necessary to limit in-person, contact visitation, the JJC purchased several iPads and successfully implemented Skype visitation to ensure that important family bonds were maintained.

Kane County Diagnostic Center (KCDC) – The KCDC provides psychological evaluations, consultation reports, individual, family and group psychotherapy, specialized screening assessments and court testimony for Kane County. Examples of the wide variety of psychological evaluations done at the KCDC are: fitness to stand trial or be sentenced; pre-employment screenings for the Kane County Merit Commission for Sheriff’s Deputies, Corrections Officers, Court Security and 911 dispatch; evaluations for treatment recommendations or sentencing purposes; Sex Offender evaluations; sexually violent predator evaluations, sanity evaluations; risk assessments; Miranda assessments; transfer assessments and referral for assessments from probation caseload. The KCDC also ran two training programs for doctoral graduate students. KCDC additionally runs the Kids 1st Program which is the divorce parenting program that all divorcing individuals with minor children need to complete by statute. KCDC staff also provide crisis services as needed to the probation department and jail.

In order to provide safety measures due to the worldwide COVID-19 pandemic, KCDC had modified its delivery of services to include telehealth capabilities by offering telehealth for therapy, clinical interviews to adult and juvenile offenders, provide a virtual divorce parenting class, KIDS1st, and by conducting the necessary supervision and didactic activities for our APPIC-accredited internship program. In-person psychological assessments were also modified to adhere to the newly developed policies and procedures developed to the COVID-19 response.

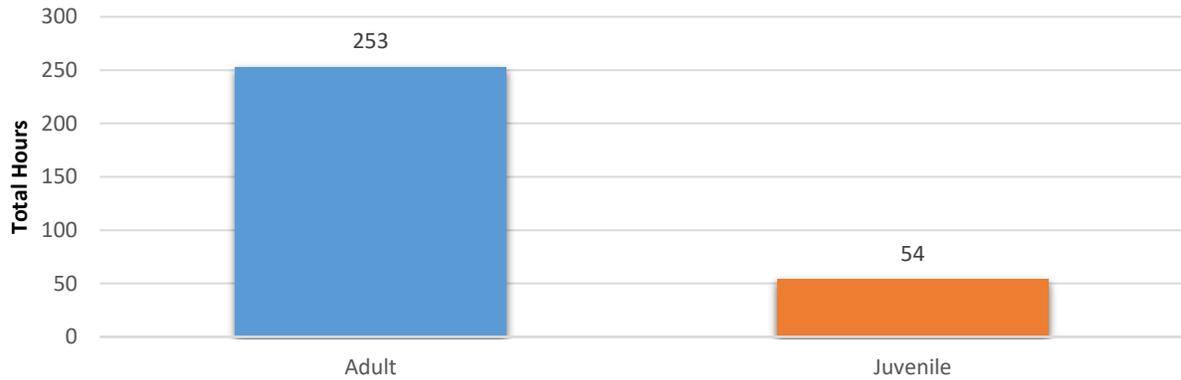

KCDC completed 307 evaluations and provided 716 service hours for treatment. The psychologists provided consultation services on both a formal and informal basis during 2020. KCDC additionally conducted 49 pre-employment screenings for the Merit Commission for positions for Sheriff’s Deputies, court security, corrections officers and 911 dispatch. The staff was available for court hearings, consultation with attorneys, the JJC, Probation, and participates as team members for the Specialty Courts. These consultant positions require over a half a day per week in team meetings and additional hours over the course of the week to meet the demands of these courts. An additional source of referrals are the specialty courts, which require assessments to clarify diagnostic and treatment planning issues. During the year the team provided 254 hours of consultation. The staff at the Diagnostic Center also spent an additional 36 hours in court providing expert testimony and devoted 207 hours to the specialty courts. KCDC staff held 34 classes for the KIDS1st program which had a total of 812 participants. Three classes were offered in Spanish.

The staff from the Diagnostic Center participated in several county-wide committees and organizations: the Kane County Chiefs’ of Police Association; Mental Health Task Force; Family Violence Council; the Fox Valley Juvenile Officer’s Association; the Board of Directors for the Child Advocacy Center; the Association of Chicago Area Training Centers in Professional Psychology; the Juvenile Court System’s Players Meetings; Kane County Hoarding Task Force and Court Services Sex Offender Task Force.
